A HUGE THANK YOU is extended to Sandy Rager who coordinated the “best fish fry” in the West end of Johnstown for the past five years. What a spectacular job you did Sandy for which I am very grateful. Your absence will create a big hole in our fund raising events. We will truly miss you. And so: we are in a desperate need to find an individual who would be willing to coordinate future fish fries. If you are interested please contact the Rectory Office at 539-19632. fr. Anthony Francis

Liturgical Reflection – Before people can come to the liturgy they must be called to Faith and to conversion. Faith is a great gift which allows the believer to profess belief in a loving God Who sent us His only Son, Jesus Christ. And once gathered at Mass, the Catholic believer professes that the liturgy is the summit toward which the activity of the Church is directed. At the same time the liturgy is the fount from which all the Church’s power flows. The aim and object of apostolic works is that all who are made children of God by Faith and Baptism should come together to praise God in the midst of the Church, to take part in the sacrifice, and to eat the Lord’s Supper. Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, Numbers 9 and 10. 2014, Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, Liturgy Office, 925 S. Logan Blvd., Hollidaysburg, Pa 16648.

Pace E Bene! Pax Tecum! Peace and All Good!

MATTHEW KELLY EVENT: “Living Your Faith with Passion and Purpose” sponsored by the Altoona-Johnstown Diocese. An event you will want to experience. Internationally known speaker and author, Matthew Kelly, will be coming to St. Francis University on Saturday, September 27, to speak on “Living Your Faith with Passion and Purpose.” This one day event has helped tens of thousands of Catholics around the world discover a passion and purpose for their lives to become a better version of themselves. It could do the same for you. It could very well be the event that can help you find what is missing in your life and faith. This may seem like a long way off, but tickets for this event sell out fast. To inquire or to register go to www.dioceseaj.org and click on the Matthew Kelly Event or you may call Sr. Linda LaMagna at 814-674-3712 to do a paper registration. Tickets are $39.00 for adults and $15.00 for teens and college students.

Stewardship Reflection...14th Sunday in Ordinary Time – “I will bless Your Name forever and ever” we hear on today’s Psalms. A stewardship way of life blesses God with an attitude of gratitude.

Families and the Gospel...Mt 11:25-30 – Today’s Gospel is about missionaries. As Jesus received a mission today, parents accept the mission of raising a family. Parents are not alone in this exhausting and difficult mission. Today Jesus tells us “Come to Me and I will give you rest.”

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

I ask each of you (parishioners of St. Francis of Assisi and St. Michel the Archangel) to support this year’s Appeal and to help our parish witness its unity in Christ with other Catholics throughout the Diocese. What is most important is that each one of us offers a gift at a level that expresses our gratitude to God for blessings already received. The ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL is a vital part of the Catholic Church’s mission in Central Pennsylvania. Through it we allow Catholic Charities, the Fulton County Catholic Mission, Family Life, Vocations, Religious Education, and Lay Ecclesial Ministry, and many others to bring the Good News that is Jesus Christ to all who turn to them. If you have not yet made a gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal, please pick up a spare envelope in the vestibule of the Church. You may return it to the Parish office, place it in the collection basket, or mail it to the ACA office. Thank you to all who have participated in the Annual Catholic Appeal to date. Please join those who have already sent in their pledge cards. Thank you for your generous response!
