*Liturgical Reflection...*The chair of the Priest celebrant must signify his function of presiding over the gathering and of directing the prayer. The more suitable place for the chair is facing the people at the head of the sanctuary, unless the design of the building prevents this. In any case, the chair is never to resemble a throne. The seat for the Deacon should be placed near that of the Priest celebrant. All other ministers' seats should be arranged so that they are clearly distinguishable from the chair of the Priest celebrant. General Instruction of the Roman Missal, Number 310. Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, Liturgy Office, 925 S. Logan Blvd., Hollidaysburg, PA 16648

Year of Consecrated Life "Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the Baptism that I am baptized with?" Should the Lord direct these words to you in prayer, how will you respond? As a Priest, Deacon or in the Consecrated Life? Call the Vocation Office by contacting Fr. Matthew Reese, 357 St. Mary, Street, P.O. Box 99, Loretto, PA 15940, 814-472-5441, or email: vocations@dioceseaj.org or Our Lady of the Angels Province at 718-510-5822 or email: vocations@aolprovince.org, Franciscan Friars Conventual.

*Stewardship Reflection...*Jesus tells us He "did not come to be a server but to serve." Spend some time reflecting on how you have served – or can serve – others without expecting a favor in return.

Families and the Gospel – Mk 10:35-45 – "Advice" books abound on marriage and parenting. Jesus tells us in today's Gospel the real secret: satisfying relationships depend on how well we sacrifice our needs to serve others. It is not about "getting," it's about "giving" ourselves. If you feel like you are a servant to your children and spouse, then you are doing it right.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THOSE WHO ARE SICK OR HOMEBOUND
