Liturgical Reflection... Take care to be on guard against all greed. Although we may have many does not consist of possessions. To bring the story home, Jesus tells about a rich young man goods for himself so he can rest, eat, drink, and be merry for the rest of his days. What God has other plans for him. Jesus' wisdom: Be rich in what matters to God. Make Christ our treasure. With God at the center of our lives, we reflect our God Who is full of kindness and Altoona-Johnstown, Liturgy Office, 925 S. Logan Blvd., Hollidaysburg, PA 16648.

things, one's life stockpiling all his selfishness! But all and God our mercy. Diocese of Stewardship Reflection... Jesus uses today's Gospel parable to help us realign our values. "success" as an accumulation of material possessions. Jesus calls us to serve others through the management of our all of our God-given gifts. Placing our Faith in Christ will bring us closer to eternal life.

Society defines faithful

Families and the Gospel... July 31 – Luke 12:13-21 – In today's Gospel Jesus warns, "life does not consist of possessions. This is not what matters to God." Our worth comes from within; who we are is more important than what we have or how we look.

She/he should be attending classes whether or not it is a sacramental year. Classes for our youth are held from September 11 until the beginning of May. All classes meet in Resurrection Parish Center on Chestnut St. Sacramental Programs – The following is recommended for all youth who will be preparing to receive any of the Sacraments listed below: They should be involved in the liturgical life of the church, receiving the Sacraments and attend Mass regularly.
