*Liturgical Reflection...*Monday, September 5, is a special Day of Prayer in the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown. The local Church will observe the intention for Human Rights and Equality. Please pray the following for all who seek just and rewarding work: O God, full of mercy and compassion, many seek work to meet the needs of their families. Provide labor that offers just wages and dignity of life so that all may live comfortably in our day. We remember employers and employees. Fill all hearts with the fire of Your love so that there is equality among all. Through Christ, our Lord. Amen. Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, Liturgy Office, 925 S. Logan Blvd., Hollidaysburg, PA 16648.

*Liturgical Reflection...*Disciples of the Lord need to know what is truly important in their Faith life. Distractions, possessions, and attachments must be left behind. Following Jesus demands a total commitment and an understanding that the Lord is the first priority in life and relationships. Such a life presumes the virtue of mercy. Filled with compassion and charity, believers witness to the Faith with a love that reflects the face of God. The Baptized need the wisdom to choose that which is of God and reject that which is not of God. In mercy we support one another in the serious call to follow Christ in our daily lives. Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, Liturgy Office, 925 S. Logan Blvd., Hollidaysburg, PA 16648.

*Stewardship Reflection...*Christian Stewards view their possessions as gifts that are meant to build God's Kingdom here on earth.

*Families and the Gospel...*September 4 – Luke 14:25-33 – Today's Gospel is clear: commitment to another involves sacrifice. Before we accept a commitment such as marriage or parenting, we must plan carefully like the King in today's Gospel. These are serious commitments which demand complete self-giving and are not for the faint hearted or selfish.
