11TH GRADE CONFIRMATION CLASS scheduled for Sunday, October 9 has been RESCHEDULED for Sunday October 23.

Liturgical Reflection... Our God is filled with mercy. Ten lepers were healed. Their brokenness has been made whole. Many tend to run away or turn their back on those in need. We become uncomfortable or lack the time to give assistance. We follow Jesus Who reached out to show pity to those ten persons. There are those among us who are eager to be made whole. In our families, neighborhoods, and Church communities, we have sisters and brothers who wish to have their brokenness healed. In mercy may we reach out to them, as did Our Lord in today's Gospel. Mercy can make dramatic changes in the lives of others. Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, Liturgy Office, 925 S. Logan Blvd., Hollidaysburg, PA 16648

Stewardship Reflection... Only one leper acknowledged Jesus as the source of His cure and returned to thank Him. May we give thanks daily to our generous God for all that we receive!

Families and the Gospel... October 9 – Luke 17:11-19 – Everyone needs a “Round Tuit.” The Gospel probably meant to thank Jesus. Excited about being cured they didn’t get “around to it.” in our own interests and fail to appreciate what we have or to say what is in our hearts. This a “Round Tuit.”
