Liturgical Reflection.... Advent is a time of longing and expectation as we remember Mary awaiting the birth of the Son of God. The new ritual for the Order of Celebrating Matrimony (OCM) offers an Order of Blessing an engaged Couple. The engaged couple is longing and expecting the day of the celebration of their marriage. The honorable betrothal of Christians is a special occasion for two families to pray together and receive a Divine blessing. The blessing of the engaged couple is a formal beginning of what will be completed at the celebration of Matrimony (OCM 218). This celebration of prayer is to be adapted to suit particular circumstances. Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, Liturgy Office, 925 S. Logan Blvd., Hollidaysburg, PA 16648.
