Liturgical Reflection... Throughout this Year of Grace 2018 the weekly liturgical inserts will look at the Church's rites at death and review the Church's teachings on the proper placement of the cremated remains of the deceased. Hopefully, these reflections will give us a clear understanding of the Church's practice at the time of death. Christians celebrate the Funeral Rites to offer worship, praise, and thanksgiving to God for the gift of life which has now been returned to God, the Author of Life and the Hope of the just. Order of Christian Funerals, 1998/1989, General Introduction, Number 5. 2017, Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, 925 S. Logan Blvd., Hollidaysburg, PA 16648.

Stewardship Reflection... As the Church begins a new liturgical year, we are reminded in today's Gospel that we are nothing more than servants, stewards of our Master's possessions, but who do not know when our Master will return. We have been given the responsibility of sharing our gifts in order to build up the Master's Kingdom. May we be awake and alive in our Faith when He comes again in glory!
