Background on the Gospel Reading

The story of Jesus in the home of Martha and Mary complements the story of the Good Samaritan, which immediately precedes it in Luke's Gospel. Both stories are unique to Luke. The story of the Samaritan opens with the words "a certain man." Today's reading opens with the words "a certain woman." The Samaritan is an example of how a disciple should see and act. Mary is an example of how a disciple should listen. Mary, a woman, is a marginalized person in society, like the Samaritan. Both do what is not expected of them. As a woman, Mary would be expected, like Martha, to prepare hospitality for a guest. Here again Jesus breaks with the social conventions of His time. Just as a Samaritan would not be a model for neighborliness, so a woman would not sit with the men around the feet of a teacher.

Both stories exemplify how a disciple is to fulfill the dual command which begins chapter 10—love of God (Mary) and love of neighbor (the Samaritan). These are the two essentials of life in the kingdom. By using the examples of a Samaritan and a woman, however, Jesus is saying something more. Social codes and boundaries were strict in Jesus' time. Yet to love God with all one's heart and one's neighbor requires breaking those rules. The Kingdom of God is a society without distinctions and boundaries between its members. It is a society that requires times for seeing and doing and also times for listening and learning at the feet of a teacher.

(July 17) Sixteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Abraham offers a generous welcome to three mysterious men. Saint Paul uses the term "stewardship" to describe the particular mission that has been entrusted to him. Jesus told Martha she was anxious and worried about too many things, "There is need of only one thing." A Christian steward takes time to listen as Mary did, giving Him the first priority of our time no matter how busy we think we are.

Christ calls each of us to be stewards of our personal vocation, which we receive from God. The challenge, then, is to understand that role and to respond generously. But be prepared, like Paul, to anticipate a share of suffering as part of the privilege of being called His stewards. Who are you willing to suffer for? (Stewardship Reflection, Catholic Stewardship Consultants, Inc. 2019/7/19)
