Background on the Gospel Reading

The second parable that Jesus tells in Luke 18 addresses attitude in prayer. In contrasting the prayer of the Pharisee with the prayer of the tax collector, Jesus teaches His Disciples to pray in humility before God. Jesus again surprises His listeners by showing the tax collector as the example of Faith, rather than the Pharisee. Remember that Pharisees were members of a sect of Judaism active in Jesus' time. They taught an oral interpretation of the Law of Moses as the basis for Jewish piety. If anyone would be a model for prayer, a Pharisee was a likely candidate. In contrast, Jesus offers the tax collector as a model for prayer. Tax collectors were collaborators with the Roman authorities in a system that allowed the tax collectors to line their own pockets by charging in excess of the defined taxes. Yet, in this parable, Jesus offers the humility of the tax collector as a model for the prayer of a disciple. The parable reminds us that when we pray, we must remember our need for God in our lives. If we are too full of ourselves, there is too little room for God's grace to work in us.

(October 23) Thirtieth Sunday of Ordinary Time

One of the wonderful aspects of Stewardship Spirituality is its balanced approach to all areas of life. As stewards, aware of our total dependence on God for everything, we come to Him in awe and gratitude and with an awareness of the great dignity He has given us. The tax collector approached God recognizing who he truly was (a sinner) and asked simply for mercy, leaving all the rest up to God. This is how a good steward prays – with trust, with complete openness to God's will, with a listening mind and heart, and ready to serve as God leads.

Trustworthy stewards practice humility, giving glory to God for all things great and small. The good steward knows he needs God, and that God has chosen to need him in advancing the Kingdom. (Stewardship Reflections by Catholic Stewardship Consultants, 10/2019)
