Background on the Gospel Reading

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family. This Feast is part of the Christmas Season, and we should place today's Gospel in the context of what Luke's Gospel tells us about the Birth of Jesus. Luke has been answering the question "Who is Jesus?" through his stories of the Births of John the Baptist and Jesus. Today's Gospel reading continues this theme. It has no parallel in the other Gospels and is the conclusion of Luke's Infancy Narrative.

Mary, Joseph, and Jesus are presented in this Gospel as a faithful Jewish family. They are participating in the annual pilgrimage to Jerusalem for the Feast of Passover, an event shared each year with family and friends. When Jesus is found, Luke describes Him as seated in the Temple in the midst of the Jewish teachers. Although He is young, Jesus seems not to need teaching about his Jewish tradition. In his dialogue with these learned teachers, Jesus astounds them with His insight and understanding. Jesus is a child of Israel. His Father is God.

The dialogue between Mary and Jesus contains many references to family relationships. In fact, in this Gospel reading Mary and Joseph are never identified by name. Instead they are referred to by their relationship to Jesus. Ultimately, this emphasizes Luke's point about the identity of Jesus. When Mary and Joseph find Jesus in the Temple, they question Jesus and express their anxiety. Jesus replies in words that many have thought to be disrespectful. Jesus says that He was never lost; He was at home. Jesus is God's Son, and He is in His Father's house. Luke will continue to suggest that faith in Jesus establishes new family relationships as he describes Jesus' Public Ministry.

In Luke's Gospel, Mary's importance is even greater than her role as Jesus' Mother. Mary is the First Disciple and will be present with Jesus' Disciples after His Resurrection at Pentecost.

Dec 29, 2024 – Feast of the Holy Family

Today's Gospel reading on this Feast of the Holy Family gives us a glimpse into the childhood of Jesus with his Mother, Mary, and his foster father, Joseph. This is a family like no other – consisting of the very Son of God, Mary the Queen of all Saints, and St Joseph the patron of the Universal Church. Yet as we see in today's Scripture passage, they led a life typical of the families of their day. They experienced many of the same joys and trials that all parents and children experience, even today. And so, we can look to this Family for help in our own family lives and see in them a model of Stewardship in family life.

CELEBRATION JOHNSTOWN – A family oriented, alcohol free event is happening in downtown Johnstown on New Year's Eve from 6 – 10 PM. The event features multiple venues with musical entertainment. Misty Haven will offer carriage rides for $5.00 per person. The event ends with fireworks by Starfire.
