THE GABRIEL PROJECT OF ST FRANCIS OF ASSISI – Wishes to extend heartfelt appreciation for the generous outpouring from Our Parish during this past Christmas Season. Your response to our Angel Tree was overwhelming and provided so many beautiful and needed baby items. We currently serve about 80 families, and they were so grateful to receive the gifts provided. Our Parishioners are a shining light of love and support to these families who have chosen life for their unborn babies. Without your generosity, our ministry could never give these families the hope and help they so desperately need. Please accept our warm thanks for all you do to help the pro-life cause. Please refer anyone needing our help. Our number is 814.418.1813. Sincerely, Becky, Christine, Elaine, and Gale

Background on the Gospel Reading

This Sunday we begin the Liturgical Season of Ordinary Time. For many Sundays in this Lectionary Cycle (Cycle C), our readings will be taken from the Gospel of Luke. Occasionally, however, we will read from John's Gospel. This is true of today's Gospel reading, which describes the beginning of Jesus' ministry and his first miracle.

To situate today's reading within the context of John's Gospel, we note that John's report of this event follows Jesus' call of His First Disciples. John tells us that Jesus and His Disciples were invited to this wedding at Cana, as was Jesus' mother, Mary. There is no parallel report of this Miracle at Cana in the Synoptic Gospels.

In the Church's Liturgical history, the Wedding Feast of Cana is closely associated with the baptism of the Lord and the adoration of the infant Jesus by the Wise Men. In this context, the sign Jesus performs at the wedding feast is celebrated as an epiphany or a manifestation of Jesus' Divinity.

Yet awareness of Jesus' impending Passion and Death is ever present in John's Gospel. Even in this report of Jesus' first sign, the language used anticipates Jesus' Passion. When Jesus says to His mother that His hour has not yet come, He protests against her wishes in language that John will use again when reporting Jesus' Last Supper with His Disciples. When introducing the story of Jesus washing His Disciples' feet, John writes that Jesus knew that His hour had come. In John's Gospel, Jesus is very much in command and aware of all that is to happen to Him.

Here, as elsewhere in John's Gospel, Mary is not mentioned by name, but is referred to instead as the mother of Jesus. Mary is influential in Jesus' first sign. She will also be present at His Crucifixion, a witness to the final manifestation of His Divinity.

John's Gospel describes seven signs that indicate Jesus' Identity to His Disciples. John never speaks of these signs as miracles because their importance is not in the deed that Jesus performs but in what these deeds indicate about Jesus' Identity. Here, as when John describes the other signs, the Disciples are said to begin to believe, but no mention is made as to whether the other wedding guests are even aware of what has happened.

Marriage and wedding feasts are metaphors used in Scripture to describe God's Salvation and the Kingdom of God. Here at the beginning of Jesus' Public Ministry, John's Gospel seeks to establish that Jesus is going to re-interpret and fulfill Yahweh's promise to Israel. Jesus establishes the New Covenant. A hint about what this New Covenant will be like is made evident in the deed that Jesus performs. Asked to do something to address the awkward situation that the absence of wine at a wedding feast would create, Jesus' Miracle produces vast quantities of wine—six jars holding thirty gallons each are filled to overflowing with choice wine.

This lavish response to a simple human need is a vision for us of the abundance of God's kingdom. It challenges us to respond generously when confronted with human need today. We respond as best we can, fully confident that God can transform our efforts, bringing the Kingdom of God to fulfillment among us.

A PRAYER FOR OUR DEPLOYED MILITARY: Heavenly Father, inspire those who are overseas for the cause of peace. Send Your Son, Jesus Christ, as the Prince of Peace. Bless the men and women of our military who respond to the needs of peacekeeping. Keep them safe from harm. Let them be models of discipline and courage and bring them home safely to their loved ones. We ask this in Your Name. Amen.

Did you know that it is a custom in Johnstown to wear something RED on Fridays to honor our military?

COMMUNITY NEWS

PRO LIFE VIGIL – is held weekly on Thursday, at 11:00AM across from the Planned Parenthood on Franklin Street in Johnstown.

PRAYER FOR OUR NATION – God our Father, Giver of Life, we entrust the United States of America to Your loving Care. You are the rock on which this nation was founded. You alone are the true source of our cherished rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Reclaim this land for Your Glory and dwell among Your People. Send us Your Spirit to touch the hearts of our nation’s leaders. Open their minds to the great worth of human life and the responsibilities that accompany human freedom. Remind Your people that true happiness is rooted in seeking and doing Your will. Through the intercession of Mary Immaculate, Patroness of our land, grant us the courage to reject the “culture of death.” Lead us into a new millennium of life. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.
